

TOWN OF PLYMOUTH, NEW HAMPSHIRE

OFFICE of the TOWN CLERK

July 25, 2022

Citizens residing in Plymouth, New Hampshire are being recruited to serve as Ballot Clerks in the upcoming elections:

- State Primary – Tuesday, September 13, 2022
- General Election – Tuesday, November 8, 2022

Eligible citizens will be 18 years of age or older on the day of the next election, domiciled in Plymouth, New Hampshire, U.S. citizens, and must be registered to vote.

Ballot Clerks play an important role and are critical to the success of New Hampshire elections. It is a commitment that expands your sense of community and fosters your civic experience between your local and state government. New poll workers work with experienced local participants to ensure adequate staffing levels, which provides voters with a positive and smooth voting experience.

If you are seeking to become a Ballot Clerk or would like to learn more about election procedures, then you are encouraged to contact Town Clerk Josie Ewing at townclerk@plymouth-nh.org or (603) 536-1732.

Sincerely,

Josie Ewing
Town Clerk
